Delivery Early December

An Epoch in Time is the history of the parish of St. Rose of Lima over 125 years, and the early pioneers that joined together to form a parish of their own in 1898 as a mission of Sacred Heart parish in Freeport. It tells of their struggles and trials, births, deaths and marriages. Working together with the parish pastors, they built a church and school, raised families and formed a community.

Inside you will find many previously unpublished photographs and in-depth stories of the early families and parish pastors, recent building projects and parish activities and celebrations.
